

Kids drive in the DeLorean time machine. They come to a sudden stop.

Marnie: What's happened? Where are we? Looks like something's gone very wrong... Everyone get out, this is going to need fixing. (Everyone starts moaning)

Amy: Not again! This is the tenth time we've crash landed! No offence Chloe, but I really think someone else should drive next time.

Chloe: Hey, I'm doing my best! This is my first time driving a time machine! If you guys think you can do better, be my guest.

Mia: Don't look at me! I can't drive, I'm only seven. I don't know what those twiddly buttons do.

Liviya: Well, I'm actually eight, so move aside please. Let me have a try... (tries to start the time machine) It's no use, it won't start.

Aila: In hindsight, it might have been a good idea if we'd invited a grown up along. Next time we go time travelling, I'm bringing my mum.

Scarlett: No way! Grownups are boring! If we hadn't crash landed so many times we never would have seen all these different time periods.

Thea: That's true. We've experienced the roaring 20s and the swinging 60s. It's been an adventure!

Emmy: I liked meeting all those Tudor queens, and hearing about the newspaper kids. History is fun when you get to see it live.

Myla: I liked dancing at the 70s disco! I'm going to tell everyone all about our adventure as soon as we get back to the future.

Jessica Belle: I hope we make it back to the future soon. I've got big plans. I'm going to become a famous actor.

Hannah: Me too. I'm gonna be in movies and win an Oscar for my dramatic portrayal of the leading lady, like this (strikes dramatic pose)

Jessica T: I want to be a doctor. I'll drive round in my ambulance saving the day and helping people who need me.

Leah: I'll be an artist. I want to paint beautiful visions of colourful landscapes and put them in galleries for everyone to enjoy.

Nessa: I'm going to become a teacher. I'll have a class of cheeky students just like you lot and I'll tell you off!

Alice: I'd like to be a businesswoman. I'll wear a suit and talk on the phone saying 'I need that report on my desk by 9!'

Maya: We've all got big dreams! The future is exciting, and it's only a matter of time.

I'm looking around
There's nothing here can slow me down
It's feeling like my lucky day
Gonna make it and then skate away
I'll be on the radio
They'll know me everywhere I go
It won't be long, they're gonna see
I'll be on MTV

A perfect future
For a shaker and a mover
Every note is in its place
With lots of treble, lots of bass
I'll rock my future
Could it be any cooler?
All I gotta do is play
My troubles disappear and go away

Come on now, future
Let's hit the turbo booster
Buckle up without a care
Now you can take it anywhere
I'll rock my future
A winner, not a loser
I'll be just what I wanna be
Rockin' all the way through history

It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
It's only a matter of time
The greatest future of all
It's only a matter of time
